

Trinity Gram

February 2017

A monthly publication of Trinity Lutheran Church, Davison, Michigan.

Dear Members and Friends of Trinity Lutheran Church,

Everyone loves a good story. Jesus told lots of good stories. Our Lord's stories connected with the day to day lives of His listeners in order to convey the important, relevant, and eternal truths which every ear and every heart from every generation so desperately needs. These stories, called parables, are sometimes described as "earthly stories with a Heavenly meaning". As the world and culture changed over two millennia, Jesus' listeners have become increasingly disconnected from the stories. This cultural disconnect has made it more difficult to understand the truths Jesus taught about following Him.

Several pastors of our local Lutheran Church - Missouri Synod congregations and I have planned and are preparing a series of sermons based on the rich teaching of Jesus' parables. Each Wednesday of Lent we will share our sermons in our six congregations. Below is a list of the six parables that we will cover and the pastor who is preaching on the particular parable:

- "Pharisee and the Tax Collector" - Pastor David Weiss (St. Timothy L. C. - Otisville)
- "Sower and the Seed" - Deacon David Hoffman (Family of Christ L. C. - Imlay City)
- "Good Samaritan" - Pastor Gary Beck (St. Mark L. C. - Flint)
- "Vineyard Workers" - Pastor Todd Frusti (Trinity L. C. - Davison)
- "Hidden Treasure & Hidden Pearl" - Kelly Todd (Christ L. C. - Goodrich)
- "Prodigal Son" - Pastor Jim Chinnery (St. Martin L. C. - Birch Run)

On Ash Wednesday (March 1) I will share the sermon based on Jesus' Parable of the Vineyard Workers here at Trinity. Each following Wednesday a different pastor (or deacon) will travel to Trinity to share the message he has prepared on a particular parable.

This year, Trinity's Midweek Lenten Worship will bring a variety in sermons and worship that is sure to be memorable. As Lent is a valuable time to invest in your relationship with Jesus, I hope that you will put Midweek Lenten Worship on your calendar each Wednesday in Lent.

In His service,

Pastor Todd Frusti

Evangelism News

February, we were made to serve. Evangelism news for February continues with New Beginnings – New Habits for 2017. Serve others as Jesus did during His earthly stay. Help others without looking for the thank you or praise. Give to others when unexpected, not for yourself, but because God has given to you. Read the Heavenly Happenings weekly or the monthly Trinity Gram for opportunities to serve others this month through events and programs sponsored by Trinity. Serving can be simple acts of kindness or being a part of a group. Remember Jesus was a servant, Mark 10:45 – “For even the Son of Man did not come to be served but to serve, and to give His life as ransom for many.”

Join our Voices of Praise Choir in time for our Holy Week Cantata! Do you like to sing along with your favorite mp3? Do you sing in the shower? Do you randomly burst into song? If you answered “yes” to any of the above questions we have the perfect opportunity for you to serve the Lord here at church – the Voices of Praise Choir. Am I serious??? YES!!!

Please choose a reason as to why you think you can’t join the choir:

- ✓ I can’t read music. You don’t have to – just the words under the fancy dots. Now you have no excuse... Join the Voices of Praise Choir for the Holy Week Cantata.
- ✓ It’s too much commitment. We are asking for 10 hours outside of the normal 1 hour service you attend already over the course of 1,344 hours available for approximately 8 weeks. Plus you will be provided with a CD, mp3’s, a Facebook page, and a website where you can access audio files for you to rehearse with. Hey, that was easy, come sing with us!
- ✓ I have children. Nursery care will be available. Time away from the kids – that’s worth singing about. There’s no better place to sing than with a choir.
- ✓ I don’t have time to practice at home. With Rehearsal CD’s/mp3’s you can practice anywhere you listen to music: in your car, walking around, during exercise. Even if you don’t sing, just listening to the music counts as practicing. Awesome-sauce – I’m practicing at home even when I’m not at home. I can join the choir!
- ✓ I’m too embarrassed to sing in public. You will be singing with a group of people. If you think you made a mistake, just look confused while pointing at the person next to you, and claim that either the director, CD, or instrumentalist made the mistake. Blame others for my mistakes??? Suh-weeeeeet!! Time to join the choir!
- ✓ Let me think... no reason... oh wait, I can’t do it, I just died. Out of reasons? Just give it a try – ONE time – if you like it, or kinda like it, try it a second time. There is no age limit, High School – even Junior High students are welcome. Oh and by the way, if you are dead, you’ve probably already joined the choir in Heaven and aren’t reading this. See, there is no avoiding being part of a choir. I have a great idea, you should join our choir!!!!
- ✓ I can’t, I don’t have a good singing voice. In heaven we will be singing His praise 24/7 365 non-stop for eternity, regardless of how we think our “singing voice” sounds. Why not get a head start? The choir is not made up of professional singers; only people that have a willing heart.

Have you ever claimed that you will try anything once? Now is not the time to be caught in a lie (especially in church). Join “Sam I Am” and we will consider changing our name to the “Green Eggs and Ham” Choir. I invite everyone to “try something new”. Make your “I tried singing in the choir” experience happen this Lent season, for this Holy Week cantata – an 8-week long commitment – you will not be disappointed. After 8 weeks, you are free to leave the choir – no questions asked. I give you my “100% money-back risk-free guarantee” that this will be a rewarding experience. Anybody who calls Trinity their church home is welcome to join. You don’t need to talk to anybody – just show up! Please prayerfully consider joining “Sam I Am” and trying our [“Green Eggs and Ham”] “Voices of Praise” choir. You will never be singled out because of a wrong note. But our church choir will never be complete until “u” are a part of it.

LET'S TALK MALE & FEMALE – Sin continues to corrupt the world and everyone is inundated with confusing messages on sexual freedom, sexual orientation, gender identity, and dysphoria. What does a loving, caring God have to say to His creation in His liberating, life-giving Word, and how do we lovingly communicate the blessing of that truth? Plan to attend the 2017 Michigan District Theological Conference on Saturday, February 11 from 8:30 a.m. - 3:00 p.m. Register online at www.MichiganDistrict.org. Ride-sharing sign-up sheet is located in lobby near Pastor's study.

The need for charity

The ancient English word for selfless, agape-type love is charity, points out John Ortberg in Love Beyond Reason (Zondervan). It means expressing love in the form of pure gift, though it now has condescending connotations. “No one wants to be a ‘charity case,’” Ortberg writes. “But in the final run, the ultimate love comes to us as a gift.”

Agape love is necessary in human relationships too, writes C.S. Lewis, because “only the lovable can be naturally loved.” He notes, “All who have good parents, wives, husbands or children may be sure that at some times they are receiving charity, are not loved because they are lovable but because Love Himself is in those who love them.”
